

WE ARE LOOKING FOR YOU!

MARINE SCIENCE INSTITUTE NEEDS VOLUNTEERS!

May 20 | Ocean Beach, SF

JOIN US AS WE DO WHAT WE CAN FOR A GOOD CAUSE!

Enthusiastic volunteers needed to help motivate and excite students during a large scale beach-cleanup and aerial art display

Thousands of children from California and worldwide have united for World Oceans Day, sending a powerful message of conservation.

Discover the inspiring legacy of the Kids Ocean Day Adopt-A-Beach cleanup event through this captivating video. Sponsored by the California Coastal Commissions WHALE TAIL® License Plate program, this footage highlights community efforts to preserve our coastlines.

Celebrate the passion of young environmentalists and pledge to safeguard our oceans today!

GET INVOLVED TODAY!

Sign up as a volunteer or a volunteer group!

May 20 | Ocean Beach, SF

NEEDED:

10 Volunteers to set up aerial art display - 6:30 AM

30 Volunteers to keep students on task, motivated, and safe - 8:30 AM

1-2 Photography/Videography Volunteers to document day events

1-2 Drone Pilot to capture aerial art image and more

- Must provide own photography equipment, drone, etc.

PROVIDED:

Virtual event training - TBD

Breakfast buffet and orientation morning of the event

Inspiration, excitement, and fun

Video and photos of the event

Visit our official website at www.sfbaymsi.org/kids-ocean-day to learn more and register online.

For individual, group, or corporate inquiries contact volunteer@sfbaymsi.org