MARINE SCIENCE INSTITUTE NEEDS VOLUNTEERS!

May 22 | Ocean Beach, SF

JOIN US AS WE DO WHAT WE CAN FOR A GOOD CAUSE!

Enthusiastic volunteers needed to help motivate and excite students during a large scale beach-cleanup and aerial art display

More than 100,000 children from California (and around the world) have sent a message to protect the ocean in honor of World Oceans Day. Check out this video featuring aerial art images at beach cleanups from over 20 years of the Kids' Ocean Day Adopt-A-Beach cleanup event. Sponsored by the California Coastal Commission.
